Fire destroyed the Nesbitt home on Cabin Hollow Road, Franklinton, Friday at 8:53 p.m. Firefighters from Station 65, Franklinton were on the scene within minutes, followed by firefighters from Dillsburg and Monaghan Township. The fire is believed to have been caused by a leak in a gas stove. According to reports, Mr. Nesbitt was at home with one of his two daughters when he heard a small explosion in the kitchen. Nesbitt then picked up his daughter and escaped before the home became engulfed in flames.

Allegations cleared at meeting

by Mary Lou Bytof

At the Carroll Township Board of Supervisors meeting on Tuesday, a real estate agent and one of the owners of the Shumaker Farm both said that Board Chairman Gary Reihart did not seek to purchase the 34-acre farm adjacent to Berkshire Hills.

During the April 18 board meeting, Ken Baker, a member of the planning commission, and Berkshire Hills resident, presented a sales agent form dated January 10, 1989, that listed the printed names of supervisors Gary Reihart and David Lavertue.

According to Baker, Lavertue admitted that evening to inquiring about the property, but Reihart did not.

On April 19, the following day, Neil B. Shumaker, one of five owners of the farm, addressed Baker's concern in a letter.

"I have never received a written or verbal offer from any real estate agent whereas Mr. Reihart was offering to purchase this property," he wrote.

"The buyer protection from that was presented at the township meeting on April 18, 1989, was never signed by me or any of the owners," he added.

After the Tuesday night meeting, Realtor Greg Sheffer of the Pennsylvania Group Real Estate Center in Camp Hill said he had called Reihart late last fall. The agent said he recalled having only one conversation with the supervisor. Reihart, a land developer, told him that he was not interested in purchasing the land at that time, Sheffer acknowledged.

The agent said it is common procedure for real estate personnel to contact developers about land on the market.

Sheffer said he had printed the names of the two Carroll Township supervisors on the form as a routine measure to protect himself from being cheated out of a possible commission.

Supervisor Larry Eichelberger, a friend of the realtor, said he suggested that Sheffer call Reihart.

"I told him to give Gary (Reihart) a call; he might know somebody who wants to buy it," Eichelberger said.

Lavertue, on the other hand, said he contacted the realtor himself. He said he knew the land was for sale "just from being a resident in the area."

The Shumaker farm was one of several properties the supervisor had inquired about in the past five years, he said. Lavertue said he is looking to buy land in the township that will not be closed in by neighbors.

In his April 18 presentation, Baker stated his concern for the change in the zoning of the Shumaker farm. Although the planning commission had recommended the farm be zoned Residential-Agricultural, the supervisors changed it to Residential-Suburban on December 23, 1988, Baker said.

In his letter, Shumaker said he had attended the December 23 board of supervisors meeting and had asked that the 34 acres of land that adjoins Berkshire Hills be zoned R-S.

Panel to address issues on ballot

By Mary Lou Bytof

A public meeting to address the four questions that will appear on the May 16 primary ballot will be held at the Carroll Township Building on Thursday, May 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Panelists representing various state government offices will address the tax reform referendum. They include representatives from the Department of Community Affairs, the offices of State Senators John Hopper and Robert Jubilier, and the office of Representative Bruce Smith.

Barry Fox of The Patriot-News and Mary Lou

Bytof of The Dillsburg Banner will question the panelists.

The Carroll Township board of supervisors invites all residents to attend the meeting, or to tune into the local government channel on cable television.

Questions from the audience will be welcomed by the panel. Those at home may phone their questions into the township by calling 432-4981.

In addition to tax reform, voters will be asked to choose whether to allow small games of chance, the sale of beer, and the sale of liquor in the township. The panelists also may answer questions on these issues.

Physic astrologer to speak at women's club meeting

The GFWC Warrington neighbors Women's Club will have a meeting May 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pinchot Park Lions Hall in Rossville.

The program will feature the astrologer, B.J. Her topic will be "Look to the Stars".

Born in Loyalton at the height of the Great Depression, values of hard work home and family were instilled by her serious Pennsylvania Dutch family. B.J. swears her upbringing was normal and unfettered by selfconsciousness about her abilities. "to tell you the truth," says B.J., "I was nearly married before I understood that everyone didn't share my psychic gifts."

Until her hit radio show, "Shoot for the Stars with B.J.", a two hour call-in weekly show on WKBO in Harrisburg, most of her work was done from her home. Her radio format is a mix of taking calls and requests from her listeners and sharing information and education in her psychic field.

Whether she's reading tarot cards or astrology charts, the loving advice of a family friend is the style that draws so many people in need of help to this giving woman.

Also, new members will be honored at this meeting. Mrs. Helen Drugan, membership chairman, will present the new members.

Letter to the Editor:

To the teachers of Northern York County High School in recognition of Teacher's Day, May 9th, 1989.

UNITY

I dreamed I stood in a studio
And watched two sculptors there.
The clay they used was a young child's mind.
And they fashioned it with care.

One was a teacher-the tools he used
Were books, music and art.
The other, a parent, worked with a guiding hand,
And a gentle, loving heart.

Day after day, the teacher toiled with touch
That was careful, deft and sure.
While the parent labored by his side
And polished and smoothed it o'er.

And when at least, their task was done,
They were proud of what they had wrought.
For the things they had molded into the child
Could neither be sold nor bought.

And each agreed they would have failed
If each had worked alone.
For behind the parent stood the school
And behind the teacher, the home.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Board of Supervisors of the Township of Franklin of York County, Pennsylvania, at their regular meeting on Monday, May 15, 1989, which commences at 7:30 p.m. at the Township Building, Century Lane, Franklin Township, York County, Pennsylvania, intends to adopt amendments to the Township's Building Permit Ordinance, No. 8-1985. Said amendments shall be adopted in Ordinance No. 1-1989 and provide certain revisions mandated by the Pennsylvania Department of Community Affairs relating to Flood Plain Management Regulations. Said revisions require that Building Permits shall be required before any construction is undertaken within any identified Flood Plain area of the Township. The amendments further set certain definitions to the Ordinance including the definition of manufactured homes and provide that the lowest floor of any structure of a Non-residential Structure within the general Flood Plain shall be elevated to be completely dry up to at least one (1) foot above the one-hundred (100) year flood as well as to prevent pollution from the structure or activities during a one hundred (100) year flood. Any structure in the 100-year flood amendments further require that any manufactured homes in any floodway area shall be elevated so that the lowest floor is 1 1/2 feet or more above the 100-year flood.

Interested parties may review the entire text of the Ordinance at the Township Building during regular Township business hours, the York County Law Library, York Pennsylvania, or the office of this newspaper.

Dillsburg student places first in county competition

Neil Byers and Drew Pepper.

by Mary Lou Bercheni

Neil Byers, fifth grade, Dillsburg Elementary took first place this years poster contest sponsored by the York County Conservation District.

He won a $50 savings bond and his poster of "two wolves in a snowy woods scene" will go on to state competition.

Tron Shelly, also a fifth grader at Dillsburg, received a third place trophy with his "pirana fish" poster.

Drew Pepper, a first grader at Northern, won a second place trophy for his poster of an "owl".

The Northern School District had three winners out of 342 posters submitted.

The contest was held in conjunction with this years celebration of National Wildlife week, in order to generate environmental awareness and to show that many people across the country are working together to protect wildlife. The theme was "Predators - They're part of the picture."

The National Wildlife Federation wants to show that predator-type animals are having a tough time surviving, from worm-gulping moles to fish-catching birds. Each predator has a special way that helps them find, catch, and eat their prey, but many wild animals are suffering from loss of habitat, illegal killings and pollution.

Legislation Sent to Full House

Legislation which would require that parents are notified when their child is arrested and charged with a summary violation unanimously passed the House Judiciary Committee Wednesday and was sent to the full House for consideration.

Rep. Bruce Smith (R-York), the bill's prime sponsor, said he is pleased that the measure has been sent to the House early in the 1989-90 legislative session.

"I'm gratified the members of the Judiciary Committee recognized the importance of the bill and I'm hopeful it will be approved by the House and Senate before the session's end," said Smith.

"Although this is the fourth consecutive session the bill has been introduced, this particular version was prepared in cooperation with the state police, the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), the Chiefs of Police Association and the district justice's association," he said. "This is a streamlined measure which has been developed with the input of all concerned parties."

Smith said the bill reflects the need for cooperation between police and district justices in a concerted effort to make sure certain parents and legal guardians are notified when their child commits a crime.

Under House Bill 652, when a minor is arrested for a summary offense either the district justice handling the case or the police are required to notify the child's parents or legal guardian. If the parents are not notified by the police, then the district justice would have to do it by regular mail.

The legislation requires that prosecution of the charged youth proceed following a 72-hour period after notification by mail.

Summary offense charges in Pennsylvania include underage drinking, disorderly conduct, public drunkenness, vandalism, criminal misconduct and retail theft.

The legislation would also lead to greater effort on the part of police to indicate prominently and clearly on the arresting citation that the offender is a juvenile.

Property Tax, Rent Rebates

Area residents who may be eligible for the property tax/rent rebate were urged today by Rep. Bruce Smith to file their applications early.

Smith said the applications should be filed before May 15 to ensure that their checks will be in the July mailing. Early receipt of the application by the Revenue Department, the state agency which administers the program, allows for notification to the applicant of any error, thus providing time for the submission of additional information before the first mailing of checks.

Revenue officials estimate that nearly 500,000 persons will apply for rebates this year.

"We must make every effort to involve parents in their child's behavior. I was shocked when I was informed that parents are not notified when their child is charged with a summary offense. This bill would correct that loophole," Smith said.

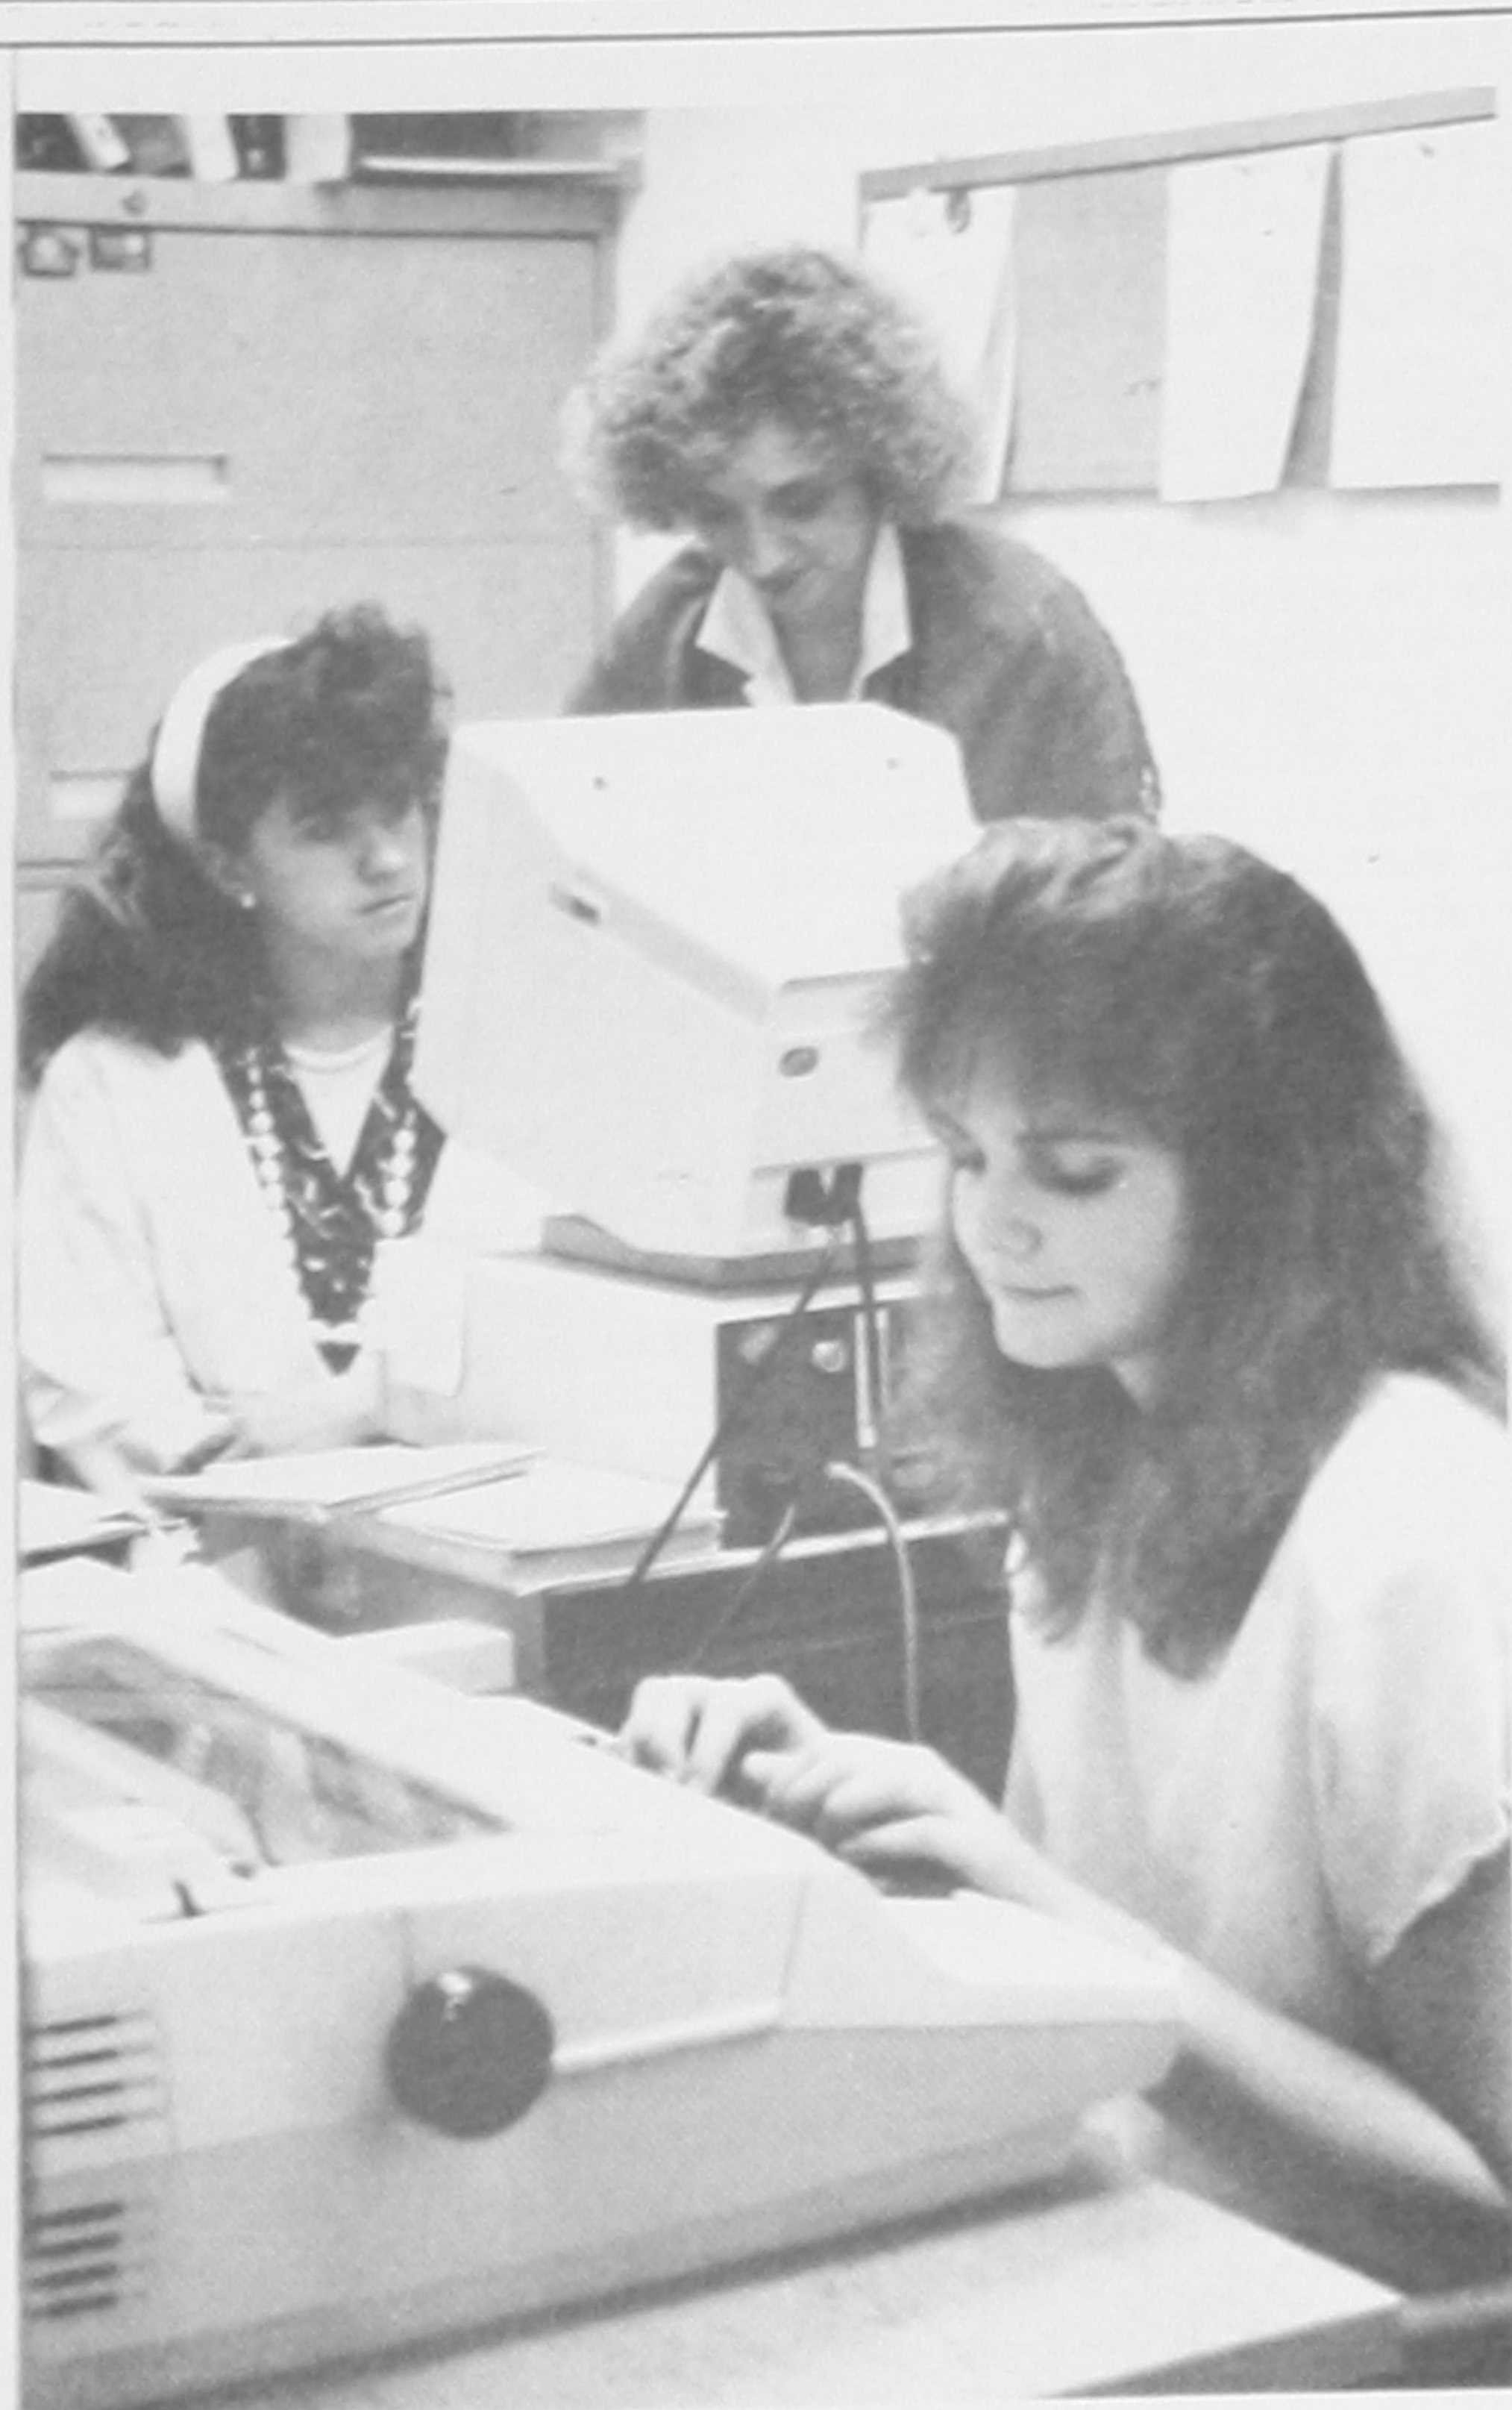

Play It Safe Around Electricity - Paul Bankert (in hard hat) of Met-Ed's Division of Safety, demonstrates to fourth grade students (l. to r.) Jeremy Cook, James Wiley, and Tricia Albright the importance of being careful near electricity at Wellsville Elementary School last week. Bankert talked about downed wires; tree climbing and kite flying near power lines; interiors of receptacles and cords; and the problem of electricity and water not mixing.

The program also included a short film, question and answer period, plus a live demonstration which allowed the students to see what can happen when you come in contact with electricity.

The program is Met Ed's way of presenting electrical safety to the school age community.

Scott Ausherman Comes Out on Top of Silver Spring Feature

Scott Ausherman won the twenty-five lap Sportsman feature event Saturday evening at Silver Spring Speedway. Ausherman started the event from the pole position, but this win was not an uneventful wire to wire win. Driving the Joe Kuhn owned No. 2 for the first time this season, Ausherman led the first three laps until Bobby Howard took over the lead on lap four following the events second and last retreat. It was green flag racing the rest of the way and Donnie Beaver moved by Ausherman for second on lap eight. Scott regained the second spot by moving by Donnie Beaver on lap twelve. Two time feature winner Smokey Snellbaker then entered the fight for the front dropping Ausherman back to third again on lap fourteen. With the young Bobby Howard and the veteran Snellbaker battling for the lead on the bottom groove of the track, Ausherman kept his Tuckey Metal Fabricators, Deibler Cylinder Headers sponsored machine up against the fence. When the leaders approached lapped traffic Ausherman powered by both the first and second place cars and into the lead eight laps from the finish. This time, there was no dropping back as Ausherman visited winners circle for the first time in 1989.

Ausherman stated that his tire selection made him slow early in the race but enabled him to come on strong at the end. A driver who has been coming on strong at the end is Rich Eichelberger. The current point leader was running fifth with only five laps remaining. He crossed the finish line in the runnerup position after passing Snellbaker on the checkered flag lap. Smokey continues his strong finishes placing third. Two of the young guys rounded out the top five. Early race leader Bobby Howard drove a smooth race for fourth and Donnie Beaver continues to be impressive with his No. 10 as he finished fifth.

Dave Cordier was sixth with Larry Jackson seventh, Frankie Herr eighth, Dwight Leig ninth and Bob Fannasy tenth. Howie Locke was eleventh and moved into sixth place in the point standings which

MOTHER DAUGHTER BANQUET

Through the pathway of life we come to learn that God's thoughts are not our thoughts, nor His ways our ways. Both in the physical and spiritual realm, great pressure means great power! Although circumstances may bring us into the place of death, that need not spell disaster.

Come join us at the Covenant Baptist Church Mother-Daughter Banquet on May 12, 1989 and hear Marianne Fisher, a survivor of the Holocaust, recount what God has done through her life.

Cost of the Banquet: Adults $8.50, Children under 12 $6.00
For tickets contact Judy White, 432-2524 or Cindy White, 432-3183 by May 5th. Dinner is at 6:30 PM. Doors open at 6:00 PM.
Directions to Covenant Baptist Church, Dillsburg: Off Route 15, take Carroll Drive, turn left on Chestnut Grove Road.

makes him an automatic qualifier for this weeks Will Kreitzer Memorial Race.

Sportsman heat events were won by Ausherman, Herr and Leib. Howie Locke was the consi winner. There were 38 Sportsman signed in.

The Limited Late Model feature event turned into a B&D Racing Products pride with Carl Billet leading the way. Following a couple of weeks of misfortune, Carl Billet wasted little time moving from his number two starting position into the lead. Carl had a smooth ride to the checkered flag. Using a last lap move that earned him a second place finish was Mark Billet. A week before, the Billet Brothers were both sidelines from the feature after being involved in the same mishap. They turned things around this week with a tone two finish. Turning in a nice job of driving was third place finisher John Provenza. It was Provenza's best finish of the young season. Leading all time feature winner Ed Jones held off a determined bid by Jeff Leiphart for fourth with Leiphart settling for fifth.

The first four cars across the finish line were all B&D Racing Products built cars, a fact that the winning driver proudly stated in his winners circle interview.

Sixth finishing spot went to the Ford of Rod Clouser, with Charlie Kope seventh in the No. 18. The top ten was completed by Dale Frye, Carl Graves and Jeff King.

Heat races were won by the Billet brothers and Jeff King. Carl Graves won the consi.

The Street Stocks were on hand for the third straight week and there was the third different winner. Former division champion Carl Graves made a last lap move to get by Rick Yohn to win the fifteen lap event by less than a car length. Tom Haxall was third with Gary Klawitter fourth. The fifth finishing position went to Nick Loranzo.

This Saturday May 6th will be the running of the second annual Will Kreitzer Memorial race for the Sportsman. The thirty lap race will pay $1500.00 to win.

May Will Be A Rich Month For Grove Sprints

The month of May will be the richest in the 50-year history of Williams Grove Speedway with more than $130,000 on the line for the Sprint car racers.

Williams Grove opens the month this Friday night, May 5, with a complete card of Sprint car racing. The first heat is scheduled to start at 8:00. The Sprint car main event will be 25 laps in distance and will pay $2500 to win.

On Friday night, May 12, the ARDC Midgets will make their only appearance of the season at Williams Grove. The ARDC Midgets will be equipped with top wings on May 12. The Midgets will appear at the Grove later this season in an event sanctioned by the United States Auto Club and on that night (June 30) no wings will be permitted. The Sprint cars will also join the Midgets on May 12.

The biggest single-day event in the history of the speedway is coming up on Friday night, May 19, the 50th anniversary of the historic half-mile clay race track.

Many of the men who helped make Williams Grove a nationally recognized facility have been invited to help celebrate the speedway's golden anniversary. At least one former champion, Bobby Davis, the current World of Outlaws point leader, has indicated he will be in competition at the Grove on May 19.

A purse of more than $50,000 has been posted in an effort to lure the nation's best Sprint car drivers to Williams Grove to participate in this historic event. Time trials will be used to set the lineups. Otherwise all Sel-Wil rules will apply.

The Sprint car feature on May 19 will be 50 laps in distance and the winner will take home $15,050. No World of Outlaws or United Sprint Association races are scheduled anyone in the country on May 19, so many travelling teams are expected to be at Williams Grove.

The World of Outlaws Sprint cars will be at Williams Grove on Thursday night, May 25, and Friday night, May 26, and for the second consecutive weekend the Sprint car purse will be well in excess of $50,000.

Reserved seat tickets for the World of Outlaws events are currently on sale in the speedway office. Credit card orders may be placed by calling 717-766-4778.

Only season ticket holders will have reserved seats for the 50th Anniversary program. All other seats are considered general admission and are priced at $15.

Happy 40th Dad We love you!

Second For Snellbaker

Smokey Snellbaker became the first repeat winner of the season at Silver Spring Speedway by driving the Tanger Sportsman to the twenty-five lap feature win on Saturday night. Snellbaker started this feature event in the twelfth spot. Smokey was able to maneuver past cars using either the top or the bottom groove. In three laps, Smokey was halfway to the front and he went by three more cars the next time around. He maintained the third running position until lap seven when he shot past the first and second place cars of Frankie Herr and Paul Troutman.

The happiest driver and crew following the feature race may have been the second place finishers Paul Troutman. In his fourth season of Sportsman racing, the twenty-eight year old had finished third in a race in August of 1987 for his best previous finish. Not only did he accomplish a career best, but he did it with a hard charging style. At the drop of the green flag Troutman put his car up against the outside wall and was up to second on lap three. At the halfway point, he had dropped to fourth but a late race charge put him back up to second at the waving of the checkered flag.

Third finishing position went to current point leader Rich Eichelberger who also made a late race dash for the front. Ike has been in the top five in each of the four races this season.

Heat events were won by Steve McNair, Locke, Snellbaker and Cordier. Gary Wolford and Kevin Berger were consi winners. There were three flips during qualifying events. Bob Fannasy and Ron Wolborn both got upside down. Both drivers were able to continue racing although neither made the feature line-up. J.R. Keifer took a much wilder ride after he hopped a wheel entering turn one. Keifer completed several end over end flyers almost leaving the speedway the hard way. Fortunately, Keifer was uninjured but his Sportsman racer did sustain heavy damage.

One of the best rides of the night was turned in by Danny Hager in a strange car. Hager slid behind the seat of the Jeremy Trout backup No. 7T after his Bitner No. 12 lost an engine in the heat event. Running fifth in the consi, Hager was the second alternate for the feature. When the feature field began to push off Jeremy Trout could not get his car into gear so the alternate was called. Scott Ausherman was unable to go as the first alternate enabling Hager to start in the twenty-fourth position. Hager joined the rear of the field having done very little to prepare the car for the feature. By lap fifteen Hager had moved up to the fourth running position. Hager's ride came to an end two laps from the finish when the front axle broke after contact.

It appeared to be Carl Hughes night in Limited Late Model action. Hughes had a perfect night leading every lap of his qualifying event and every lap of the twenty lap main event also. Hughes started on the outside pole of the feature, moved into the lead at the drop of the green and never looked back. It was the fourth career win for Hughes at Silver Spring but was an important one as Carl has Leon Wintermyer as his new car owner and sponsor. This new team looks very impressive and will be a team to be reckoned with this season.

While Hughes was pretty much in control of the number one spot, there was quite a battle for runner-up honors. Dale Frye used a last lap charge to get by Glenn Adams for second after a good battle. Adams turned in a great job having held the second running position for much of the race. Frye is back in Late Model competition on a full time basis driving his brother's No. F-1. Rod Clouser moved from his twentieth starting position up to a fine fourth place finish. The 1988 Limited Late Model rookie of the year Carl Graves was fifth.

The race had several caution flags. The most serious occurred on lap fourteen when four of the top ten running cars got together coming off of turn four. Both Mark and Carl Billet were involved along with Scott Brady and Charlie Kope. Of the four, only Kope was able to rejoin the race following a great job of pit work by the Shatzer crew.

Q. I think the Tony Awards are the best that television has to offer when it comes to these star-studded events, and the reason I feel this way is because Angela Lansbury has been the host. Is Angela returning once again this year? I certainly hope so; she's a true delight. Carol, Menominee, Mich.

A. Angela Lansbury, four-time Tony Award winner and one of television's most popular stars, will repeat, for a third time, her highly praised role as hostess for the Antoinette Perry (Tony) Awards. The awards will be held at the Gershwin Theatre on Sunday, June 4, 9:00 - 11:00 p.m. (EST) on the CBS Television Network.

Don Mischer, executive producer of the Tony Awards telecast commented, "We are delighted that Angela has agreed to return. For two years she has hosted the Tonys with grace, style, and integrity, and her popularity transcends the worlds of theatre and television."

Miss Lansbury added, "I love hosting the Tonys; it's the most glamorous and exciting night in the theatre. I am thrilled to be invited back to Broadway."

Angela, who won four Tony Awards as Best Actress in a musical for her starring roles in "Mame" (1966), "Dear World" (1969), "Gypsy" (1975) and "Sweeney Todd" (1979), is currently beginning her sixth year starring as Jessica Fletcher in the successful CBS-TV series "Murder, She Wrote."

For the third year, Don Mischer Productions will produce the Tony Awards telecast, a co-production of the American Theatre Wing and the League of American Theatres and Producers. The Tony Awards and the Mischer team won the 1987 Emmy Award for Outstanding Variety Special.

Q. Is that adorable and talented young actor Patrick Dempsey married or currently involved? Karen, Las Vegas, Nev.

A. Patrick, who is fast becoming America's number one heartthrob, just recently married his manager, Rocky. Sorry ladies!

Q. I simply love the television show, "Designing Women". Could you please settle a bet for me? I say all four of the stars are true southern gals. However, my friend disagrees. Who is correct? Tammy, Winter Park, Fla.

A. Sorry, Tammy, all four stars are not originally from the south. Stars Delta Burke, Dixie Carter and Annie Potts are true southern belles. However, actress Jean Smart was originally born in Seattle, Wash. Just for the record, Delta is originally from Orlando, Fla.; Dixie hails from McMoresville, Tenn., and Annie is from good ole Nashville, Tenn.

Q. Is it true that dapper actor Kevin Costner is seriously considering a musical career as well as an acting career? Rebecca, San Jose, Calif.

A. Yes, that is absolutely correct. Kevin calls his rock group "Roving Boy" and they have already cut an album. However, the album is only available overseas. Costner is being very careful how he handles his American debut.

Q. Is it true that my favorite actor of all-time, Jimmy Stewart, is losing his hearing? Linda C., Wichita, Kan.

A. At age 81, Jimmy is having some difficulty with his hearing. However, that is nothing new. According to the legendary actor, he has been seeing a hearing specialist for the past 25 years.

Q. What's the scoop on Paul Newman's decision to run for president in 1992? Or maybe Senator from Connecticut, or something like that? Carol G., San Diego, Calif.

A. There's no scoop on Paul's political plans because there's nothing to say at this time. However, Newman is continually being approached by important people in the Democratic party to run for office and he continually turns them down.

Q. What's the inside story on Roseanne Barr's inflated ego? How dare she fire the people who created her show ("Roseanne") and gave her her big break? Joseph B., Calhoun, Ky.

A. The character you see on the show, "Roseanne," was created by Roseanne Barr and, as far as we've been led to understand, she felt the show had been going in a direction that was opposite the original premise she had agreed to earlier.

Q. I notice that a lot of presidents like to compare themselves to other presidents: Ronald Reagan seemed to like being linked with Calvin Coolidge, Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman and, sometimes, John F. Kennedy. Who is President Bush's favorite president? Paula G., Baltimore, Md.

A. Theodore Roosevelt. Like Bush, he was born in the east and spent much of his time in the west; he liked sports including riding and sailing. And, of course, like Bush, he came from old money.

Q. I heard Arsenio Hall say Mary Hart dates — present tense — Elvis Presley. What's he talking about? Natalie B., Los Angeles, Calif.

A. Arsenio said it as part of a pre-show, on-air promo when he announced the appearance of the lovely cohost of "Entertainment Tonight" as a guest on his show. That's all there is to it. Of course, if he had mentioned Shirley MacLaine, that might have been a different story. (Just kidding, folks! Just kidding.)

Q. Did Sonny Bono really walk off the set of "Friday Night Videos" because Cher unexpectedly turned up? D.M., Charleston, S.C.

A. Sonny ankled off the set when his cohost reportedly turned up as a Cher look-alike.

DEAR DIANE

by Diane Van Arsdale

DEAR DIANE:

I am on my second marriage, and this marriage is worse than the last one. It started out fine, of course, but now my husband has taken up drinking and refuses to get help. When he gets drunk, he gets moody and violent. When he's not drinking, he's like another person. I've tried to get him to get help or just to admit that he needs help; nothing seems to work. I don't want this marriage to end, as I was happy with him for a long time, and I'm getting too old to go out looking for another husband. I'm 47 years old. I've never really worked, and I'm afraid I won't be able to make it on my own. On the other hand, I can't take any more abuse, physically or mentally. Any suggestions on what on earth I can do?

FRAZZLED

DEAR FRAZZLED:

Contact your nearest chapter of Al-Anon, the organization which helps the families of alcoholics for help with your problems. They are a wonderful support group. As for your husband, he alone can make the decision to go for help. Nothing you do or say is going to make him do it.

Personally, I don't think you should tolerate the physical abuse. If he does it again, call the police. Don't be afraid to do this. Your safety is at stake.

DEAR DIANE:

My husband and I have been married two years, so we're basically newlyweds. Everything was going along okay for the first six months. Now, I'm bored to death. He has his own business, so he's either at work or sitting in the den watching television. He doesn't drink or smoke, and doesn't like to go out and whoop it up with our friends. He just works hard, saves money, and watches television. It's the same old routine. I would like to get out and do something. When I mention that we should get together with our friends and go out, he has the same answer — "We should save our money." What for? We have plenty of it, so what's the sense if you can't enjoy it? Do you know of any way I can get him to change?

BORED

DEAR BORED:

While you've told him you want to go out, you haven't, as far as I can see, told him how you've been feeling about it. If you both sit down and discuss it, I'm sure you can reach a compromise. He doesn't have to go out with you every night of the week, but once a week, or maybe once every two weeks, is not unreasonable. Barring that, you could develop some outside interests of your own. Perhaps you could take an adult education course, or join a gym. This would alleviate some of your boredom as well. Good luck.

DEAR DEX

by Dexter Dyer

DEAR DEX:

I have a daughter who's 16 years-old. When she was growing up, she was the greatest daughter a father could ask for. Now that she's reached this age, she's getting way out of control. Her mother says it's mostly my fault. She said it's because I've always given her her own way, spoiled her rotten, as she puts it. If her mother said no, she knew I would say yes. Now, when I really mean no about something she wants to do or have, she won't take me seriously. I bought her a car for her birthday. Since then when she goes out in the evenings on the weekends, she has a curfew of 11:00 p.m., but she sometimes gets home at two in the morning. I'm afraid of what she's doing until those late hours. If I'm too hard on her though, she may just pick up and leave. She tells me that if she can't do this or that, then she'll leave and won't come back. I don't want to lose her. How can I get the point across that she has responsibilities and rules that she must live by now that she's a teenager?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED:

As you are well aware, you have created a monster. Your daughter knows exactly which buttons to push with you in order to get her own way, and you are a sap for letting her get away with it. Children will go only as far as they are allowed. Once and for all, you have got to take a firm stand with her. Let her know that if she doesn't listen to you, there will be consequences (such as taking her car keys away, grounding her, etc.). Then DO IT! Also, you say she has responsibilities now that she's a teenager. I'm sorry, but children have responsibilities at any age, not just some magic period you think they should suddenly mature in.

If you don't take care of this problem now, you and your daughter will be very sorry later.

DEAR DEX:

I'm 29 years old and used to be a pretty swinging guy. I always had a date. As a matter of fact, I usually had a few the same night and had to pick one. I always overbooked myself with dates. Making so many dates always got me in trouble, but I always worked them out somehow. For the last nine months or so, I haven't really been dating anyone. I can't even seem to get interested in finding anyone to date. If a girl comes up to me to talk, I simply find something to say to turn her off. Sometimes, I says things rudely, just to make sure that she wants nothing to do with me. When I do meet someone that I really like, I can't seem to make a go of it. I ask myself if I'm getting old, or just not as good looking as I used to be. Do you think I just need to try a new approach, or do you think it goes much further than this?

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED:

Perhaps you're experiencing burn-out. It sounds to me as if you had quite an active social life. However, all that wheeling and dealing and shuffling dates would exhaust anyone. It's not a bad idea for you to step back right now and take stock of what you really want — from women and from your life. Look to your future. If you spend some time reflecting, you'll have your answers.

ALBUM PICK OF THE WEEK — Epic recording artists The Slammin' Watusis are back in the rock and roll arena, armed and dangerous with an uproarious new album, "Kings Of Noise." The Chicago-based fivesome are currently on a month-long tour of the Eastern U.S. with fellow slam-jammers Fish-bone.

"Kings Of Noise" mixes raw energy, wacky humor, and first-rate musicianship on an album that brings The Slammin' Watusis into their own as an ace recording unit. Recorded at The Fire Station in San Marcos, Texas with producer Howard Benson, "Kings Of Noise" includes such brashly rocking tracks like "Livin' In Sin," "She's A Looker," "Hush," and "Endless Conversation."

Ready to rock, The Slammin' Watusis are, Lee Pope (guitar, vocals), Clay Watusi (bass, vocals), Frank Raven (vocals, sax, harmonica), Mark Durante (lead guitar), and Benny B.B. Sapphire (drums).

OTHER NEW ALBUMS OF NOTE INCLUDE — "Larger Than Life" by Jody Watley (MCA) featuring such delightful cuts as "Real Love" and "L.O.V.E.R." ... "River Of Time" by The Judds (RCA/Curb) featuring "Not My Baby" ... "Man On A Mission" by Charlie Singleton (Epic) featuring "Good, Bad & Ugly" ... "Cross That Line" by Howard Jones (Elektra) featuring "Fresh Air Waltz" ... "Boom Boom Chi Boom Boom" by Tom Tom Club (Sire) featuring "Little Eva" ... "Night After Night" by George Duke (Elektra) featuring "Guilty".

TIME TO CUT THE RUG — The missus would like to highly recommend the following new 12-inch dance releases. And the winners are ... "Jack To The Sound Of The Underground" by Hithouse (Next Plateau) ... "Downtown" by One 2 Many (A&M) ... "Me, Myself & I" by De La Soul (Tommy Boy) ... "That Smiling Face" Camouflage (Atlantic) ... "Victim Of Pleasure" by Mandy Smith (Atlantic) ... "Digital Tension Dementia" by Front Line Assembly (Wax Trax) ... "Just Started" by Lachandra (Movin') ... "Let's Work" by Casanova's Revenge (Invasion).

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Someone you haven't heard from in a while suddenly re-enters your life. This may have some romantic connotations for those of you who are single. For others, new business and financial ventures are favored.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Even though it seems everything is going really well for you this week, you will still be demanding too much of a loved one. Ease up on this or you may find yourself causing a real rift. Money concerns seem to take care of themselves if you do not spend foolishly.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Vacations taken at this time are highly favored. However, whether at home or away, be sure to watch your finances. There is a tendency to overspend right now so use your head when making financial transactions.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The beginning of the week will find you in a less-than-pleasant mood toward a certain co-worker who's been unproductive. However, a heart-to-heart talk will clear the air. Use tact and intelligence during this meeting of the minds.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Cooperative ventures are favored this week and you'll find yourself very much the willing team member. However, things on the home front may be a bit rocky. A good friend comes to your aid with comforting advice.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You'll find yourself wanting to stick pretty closely to the home front this week as you're in one of your less sociable phases. Indulge this for now and catch up on some needed rest and relaxation. Try to avoid arguments with friends and loved ones.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your penchant for details and doing things the right way could cause you some hard times at work this week. However, you will triumph in the end when the job is done right. Bigwigs and co-workers will be truly impressed with your efforts.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Although someone close to you seems to be irritating you these days, you should take stock of the total relationship and try to accent the positive. Don't be stubborn and close-minded at this time. Money matters are favored now.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) That anger you're holding inside could cloud your thinking this week. Don't be withdrawn with the folks closest to your heart. Surprisingly, though, you complete a project which has been occupying you for quite some time on the domestic front.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Bigwigs seem to be in a particularly surly mood this week. Rest assured, however, it has nothing to do with your particular performance. Utilize tact and patience and all will be well. Romance looms for you this weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Remember that things said in jest can sometimes be very hurtful. Think before you speak this week. On the career front, it seems to be a good time to pursue goals. Be confident, but not cocky.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Although socializing is favored this week, try to avoid discussing financial matters with friends. There is the possibility of a disagreement which could mar your sunny mood. This is an ideal weekend to complete any unfinished home chores or improvements.

IF YOU WERE BORN THIS WEEK, you are very imaginative and creative but you do not easily trust people — especially new acquaintances. However, you are genuinely concerned about the welfare of others and make a dedicated worker for the cause. Such fields as teaching, medicine, and counseling are excellent for your type of personality. Experimentation early on in life is excellent before you choose a specific occupation.

For best results when staining your wooden deck, follow all instructions on the product label, the color card and the following suggestions:

- Make sure to first brush out stain on a sample piece of wood to ensure the color is what you want.
- DO stain the underside of all deck boards, including all edges and ends before assembly of new decks.
- Apply the stain to clean, dry surfaces that are free of mildew.
- While you can apply stain immediately to a new deck, for best results, let the exposed wood weather before staining.
- Do NOT apply more than one coat of stain.
- Apply in moderate temperatures, from 40 degrees to 90 degrees Fahrenheit.
- Do not thin stains.
- Do not apply stain without proper ventilation.
- Do not restrain for one and a half years to avoid a pigment build-up.
- Read all product directions and information to ensure best results.

ALL MY CHILDREN: After Remi had supplied him with the floor plans to the warehouse, Jeremy entered, overcame the guards, and almost succeeded in freeing Marissa until the ringleader fired a drug-tipped dart at him and recaptured them both. Later, Marissa told him she never stopped loving him, and they kissed. Nico turned down Cecily's proposal, but Cecily insisted she'd marry "someone" by the end of the week. Barbara denied Erica's accusation that she's after Travis. Erica announced her new cosmetic line, Allure, will be launched July 15. Travis agreed to come in on the line and asked Barbara to take charge of the public relations. Wait To See: Adam finds himself confronted by questions that prove difficult to answer.

ANOTHER WORLD: In the courtroom, Sharlene admitted to having been a hooker. Derek was upset when Felicia didn't recognize him. Rachel told Iris she would show Mac the tax returns connecting her to Bennett publishing. Jake forced Vicky to go in for a blood test. She agreed and secretly switched the blood samples; the results showed Jake was not her baby's father. Wait To See: Felicia finds another surprise from the past waiting for her.

AS THE WORLD TURNS: Tom reassured Lien he loved her and would never send her back to Vietnam. Iva was furious at Lucinda for giving Caleb a loan in an attempt to take over the farm. Margo took Adam to Greece after Kim realized Hal is the baby's father. Tonio offered Kirk a job after Lucinda fired him. Wait To See: Bianca faces a crucial decision regarding her knowledge about Sierra.

BOLD & THE BEAUTIFUL: Stephanie and Eric told the family Angela died the previous night and was cremated that morning. Ridge went out to Angela's home with Brooke and was startled to find the dead woman very much alive. Angela assured him his sister really had died. Clarke was ecstatic over Sally's job offer. Wait To See: Ridge forces Stephanie and Eric to take a potentially dangerous step.

DALLAS: In Salzburg, Bobby and April explored their blossoming relationship atop the famed Maria's Mountain. J.R. ran into an old flame while visiting the Lippizaner horses of Vienna. Meanwhile, back at the ranch, Clayton still found it difficult to retain his memory, while Sue Ellen talked to Miss Ellie about her film. Wait To See: Cliff's marriage proposal suddenly takes on new significance.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: After confronting Victor about the pills that kept him impotent, Justin left the mansion with Adrienne, leaving Victor suddenly feeling his loneliness.

Tots To Teens

by Sue Ellen Sullivan

Dear Sue: Here is my problem. I have a 17-year-old son from my first marriage who bullies my two children, aged six and seven, from my current marriage. I was very patient with him for a long time. I reminded him that no one picked on him when he was their age, but still the fights continued. Finally, I had enough and told him if he couldn't live by our rules, he could get out. He packed his bags and left. Two weeks have passed and he hasn't gotten in touch with us. Friends have seen him in the neighborhood but nobody knows where he is staying. My heart is broken, but I can't go running after him now. My husband thinks I was too rough on him, but I felt something had to be done so I did it. Sonia D.

Dear Sonia: Enlist the help of one of your friends who has seen your son. They can tell him that his parents are worried about him and hope that he is all right. See if they can arrange a meeting between you and your son so that you can talk about the possibility of his coming home. After being on his own for this length of time, he probably will be more than willing to be civil to the younger children as the condition for his return. Be sure to get his promise before his baggage comes back.

ness. Anjelica told Victor Neil adopted Alexander. Adrienne watched Anjelica's tape and was shocked to learn Justin was Alexander's father. Marcus began investigating his past. Unaware that he was being stalked by a shadowy figure, Nick was determined to persuade Eve to reconcile with him. Kimberly escaped an attempt to kill her. Diana was attacked when Roman left her alone for a moment. Wait To See: Roman realizes there's more to Cal's story than his illusion, and Robin's secret is nearly exposed.

FALCON CREST: Angela's attempt to set the record straight about her kidnap and release with Samantha's help only made her sound more mentally disjointed. Richard gloated with satisfaction at her plight while Maggie plotted to get the children back from him. Wait To See: An ally appears from an unexpected source.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: Anna found Duke's wedding ring in the burned out rubble — where Duke had thrown it before escaping the fire — and finally accepted his death as a fact. Olivia overheard Anna accuse Victor of killing Duke and vowed to make him pay for it. Robert, Sean and Lewis deduced Malone was the one who betrayed Duke. Colton didn't tell Arielle that he knew she had followed him and Felicia to New York. Wait To See: Charlie and Yasmine get closer to their goal of finding the bone and the emerald, while Robert comes up with a fact that could prove Paul's guilt to Kathy.

GENERATIONS: At the reading of the will, Jessica learned she would inherit her mother's jewelry and silver, with the bulk of Hugh's estate going to her son. Later, Jessica insisted she'll be the one to tell her son about his inheritance. Sam's fantasy of a successful glamorous life after graduation is punctured when Rob told her he knows about her cheating on the exam and he'll see to it she never graduates. Adam was shocked when Henry told him to sell his car to pay the $3400 bill for the trashing of his room at the Frat House — or come to work for him for the summer instead. Wait To See: Jessica's little secret takes on large overtones.

GUIDING LIGHT: Alan's blanket caught fire and Alan-Michael and Philip rushed to put it out. Sonni was drugged and Marah was taken. Rev went on TV to beg for Marah's safe return while Sonni turned to Will for moral support. Roger confronted Alan and said he knows he can really walk. Wait To See: Will's plans take on an increasingly dangerous aspect.

KNOTS LANDING: Abby plotted to have Paige transferred out of town to the corporation's New York office. She also had her first extramarital affair since her marriage to Greg; all this in her attempt to protect her secret ownership of Murakame Corp. Michael and Ellen learned their valuable computer program had been peddled to Sumner Corp. by Johnny Rourke. Wait To See: Abby's machinations lead beyond the first mysterious death and the first attempt at blackmail.

LOVING: A desperately ill Alex showed up in Corinth where Egypt cared for him. The doctor discovered a bullet fragment as the cause of his infection. At the construction site, Trucker narrowly escaped injury while checking out faulty scaffolding. Jack sent a letter from Alex to Ava via Kate. Stacey told Rick she will marry him, and then broke the news to Jack. Wait To See: Ava's confusion leads to delusion.

ONE LIFE TO LIVE: Viki learned she and Roger were actually married in Eterna 25 years earlier. Roger burned the certificate when he realized the repercussions it would have on both their lives. An angry confrontation developed between Ro and Michael Grande over Grande's anger at the attempt to close down his hotel, and the blowing up of the entrance to the gold mine. Austin asked Sarah's advice about a "friend" going blind, while he secretly took eye drops and experienced blurry spells. Dan took Brenda to the hospital where she was prepared for a C section. Wait To See: Clint realizes he has lost part of Viki to Roger.

SANTA BARBARA: Bunny said he loved Gina enough to dare to renounce the family to avoid marrying Vanessa. Cruz realized Eden had psychic powers and after Sandra showed her how to use them, Eden "saw" Adrianna in Paris. Laura was hit over the head after she discovered the school had been vandalized. C.C. told Mason his own father had been an alcoholic and the cancer that killed him was caused by his drinking. Wait To See: Ethan's suspicions about Michael and Laura flare up.

YOUNG & THE RESTLESS: Danny told Rex that Clint seemed to be treating Gina well and that Gina seemed to be in love with him. Britt told Carl about the unsigned codicil and the discovery that George was dissatisfied with Paul's behavior. Paul was stunned to learn George had accused him of fraud. Kay tried to persuade Jill to accept Nina as her son's wife or she'll wind up losing both her son and grandson. Victor showed obvious displeasure at the news that Nikki and Ashley had gone to a singles bar. Wait To See: Britt's attempts to help Paul lead to a surprising discovery.

About Antiques

When the Civil War ended, the country seemed to be searching for games and fun. Croquet, a quiet game that could be played on almost any lawn, soon became the great fad of the 1860s. Women could play without becoming overheated or unladylike, and it is one of the few sports that men and women could play on an equal basis.

Croquet probably originated in France in the 13th century. It became popular in England in the 1850s and soon traveled to the United States. Croquet sets were made by many early toy makers, including Charles Crandall and E.L. Horsman. In 1874, the South Bend Manufacturing Co., in Indiana, started making sets and became one of the major American manufacturers.

The size, weight, and color of the croquet balls, as well as of the mallets and wickets, did not have to be identical. As a result, collectors can find a great variety of different examples.

What Information Should I Bring With Me When I Have a Will Done

Law Notes From the Office of Bratic & Portko

A Will is a document that has to meet certain legal requirements in order to be valid. Unlike other documents, the person having it made is not around to tell others what he or she may have intended if it is not correct.

The following is a checklist of items to consider when having a Will prepared:

1. Do you want to consider being an organ donor. In the last 15 years organ transplants have become routine and it is not unusual to make provisions for organ donorship in the Will.
2. Determine what, if any, instructions you may want to leave with regard to disposition of the remains, cremation vs. burial.
3. If you own cemetery lots, it is not a bad idea to list the exact cemetery where you are to be buried.
4. Who do you want to inherit your property? It's a good idea to have at least one alternate beneficiary.
5. If you have children (under 18), decide who you would like to have take care of them if the other parent would not be available. Be sure to check with the person or persons who are to care for the child or children to be sure it's OK with them.
6. Decide if you would like to be kept alive by artificial devices and life support systems if medically you are declared brain dead. (This provision is generally called a Living Will and is an option available to you).
7. Decide who is to be the personal representative, also known as an Executor or Executrix. Be sure to name an alternate.

While there is no law stating you must have a Will, it will make things a lot smoother for those left behind if you do have one.

Fletcher Runs Dry as Stevie Wins 18th

Stevie Smith drove from the 18th starting position to take the lead on the final turn en route to his second victory of the season in the 25-lap Sprint car feature Friday night at Williams Grove Speedway. Gary Stuhler won the 20-lap Late main event.

While victory was sweet for Smith's Hamilton GMC team, defeat was a bitter pill to swallow for Bobby Fletcher. After leading for 24 and three-quarter laps Fletcher's B&D Auto Parts #66A sputtered coming through the final corner of the race as Fletcher watched Smith's #77 flash by. Fletcher coasted across the line second with an empty fuel tank.

With 20 laps down Smith was sixth and seemingly out of the picture, but the 22-year old charger took the runnerup spot from his father on the 23rd circuit, and went on to score his 12th career victory at Williams Grove.

Smith became the first repeat winner at the Grove this season and earned $2500 for his performance. Fletcher collected $1650.

Third place went to Steve Smith, the winner's father, who started tenth in the Leiby's Mobile Home #19. Fred Rahmer turned in a strong performance in the Lawrence Service Center #99 to finish fourth after starting 11th. Steve Siegel tied Stevie Smith for the evening's best passing performance moving his National Cold Storing #2 from the 22nd starting position to a fifth place finish.

Jeff Shepard, Kenny Adams, Bobby Allen, Kenny Jacobs and Dan Dietrich completed the top ten. Allen was making his first start since being sidelined with a shoulder injury for the past two months.

Heats for the 33 Sprint cars were won by Fletcher, Joey Kuhn and Len Krautheim. The consolation race went to Frankie Kerr.

Stuhler took the lead when Mark Billet dropped from competition on the fourth lap of the Late Model feature. Once in front Stuhler was never headed. Jim Bernheisel held off last week's winner Rick Eckert, Bobby Ballantine was fourth and Jeff Robinson completed the top five. Junior Eckert, Charlie Kope, Mike Hess, Dave Kepner and Al Richards rounded out the top ten.

Polar Bears Split In Baseball

by John Middlekauff

Perhaps every sports reporter that has ever lived, at onct ime in their career, has written about the "Champion who bounced back from sure defeat". Coming from behind to win a big game is expected from good teams! Northern has a good team, and on Monday (4/24) they showed it as they came from behind to defeat a determined West Perry bunch 8-4.

Northern actually had a 3-0 lead, thanks in part to a two run homerun by first-sacker Andy Ritter in the first. West Perry exploded for four runs in the top of the fourth off starter and winner Brian Newman. At this point in time, it might have been easy for the Bears to fold their tents and slip quietly away. No way, instead the Polar Bears came back fighting! The barrage started with a ringing double by DH Dylan Merovich and ended with a run scoring single by Shortshop Josh Linsey seven batters later. In between the Bears collected six straight hits, featuring a three run homerun by second basemen George Merovich.

Given a new lease on life, and an 8-4 lead, Newman wasn't about to toss this one away. Brian gave up a lead-off triple in the sixth, but West Perry could not score as he shut off the Mustangs. For the game, Mr. Newman issued only one walk and struck out seven in going the distance for Northern.

On Wednesday (4/26), fate did not allow the Bears to make it three in a row, as Big Spring roved to be an inhospitable host scoring five runs in the fifth and holding on for a 5-4 decision. Northern had staked starter Scott Acpli with a 3-0 lead before the Bulldogs busted out with their five-spot. A couple of walks, a balk, and some timely hits gave BigSpring the margin they would keep, although the Bears did score a run in the sixth.

Northern, led by Josh Linsey's 2 for 3 effort, both triples, and a solid relief performance by George Merovich, played a very solid game but still came up short in this game.

This week will find Northern taking on three Division III opponents. Monday and Wednesday the Bears take to the road travelling to Susquenita and Camp Hill before returning home to host Shippensburg on Friday.

Green Leaves Finally Spring

by Maureen Young

I have been watching the willow tree in my backyard turn from yellowish green to pale green so I know spring is finally here along with the wonderful spring showers.

I got smart this year and planted windflowers, crocuses and hyacinths in my backyard within five feet of my kitchen door so I could enjoy them through the full length glass door instead of just glancing at the spring flower bulbs while walking up the front walk with my arms full after work. The hyacinths came up during the few warm days in February and did not bloom at all. I will let you know if they bloom next year.

To care for your tulips after they are finished blooming cut off only the dead flower tips, leaving the flower stem and foliage intact. Using string wrap the foliage around the flower stem until yellow. Another good trick to hid the unsightly foliage is to plant annuals until you can safely remove the yellowed leaves.

Remember to prune your forsythia after its done blooming to both shape and to insure lots of beautiful flowers next spring.

FOR SALE: Good mixed Timothy hay, $1.25 bale, good alfalfa hay, $1.50. Also straw $1.00 a bale. 766-6072 anytime.

Northern Relay Captures Medal

by John Middlekauff

It used to be called the Dickinson Invitational and had been so since 1968, now it is known as the Stan Morgan Invitational Track and Field Meet. On Saturday it was held at Carlisle High School on a very dismal day. Northern High School track squads sent their representatives, but because of weather conditions or thoughts of the prom to be held that night, the Polar Bears just did not fair that well. An invitational is a spectacular event. The variety of colors in the warmups are glorious to behold. The reds of Lancaster, Reading and Cumberland Valley. The blues of Lampeter-Strasburg and Chambersburg. The maroons of Manheim, Mechanicsburg and Shippensburg. The green of Carlisle, the yellows of Milton Hershey, the purple and white of Northern. And of course, the variety of events is just as spectacular as are the various performance of the athletes themselves.

I never ran track or participated in the field events, so I can only imagine how difficult it was to get loose or stretched out in the cold and damp of a dreary Saturday. Northern's athletes went prepared to do their best, and hoped to place well in several events. Such was not to be! Matt Ayers did place seventh in the triple jump, and likewise the boys two mile relay. Michelle Mayhew won a sixth place finish in the 400 meter dash, but the biggest thrill for Northern came from its 4x400 relay team. This group of Nancy Jacoby, Amy Minnich, Becky Minnich, and Michelle Mayhew placed a very respectable third place in this very exciting event.

The Polar Bears have several dual meets still remaining on the schedule, before the conference meet and the first steps toward the state championships to be held later this month. Northern just might have some individuals headed in that direction.

Bears Win Two

by John Middlekauff

After getting blown away by Mechanicsburg 16-3 last Friday (4/21), and losing a heart-breaker to East Pennsboro 10-9 on Tuesday (4/25), the Northern Girls Softball team put their offense in high gear to win back to back games last week.

In the first contest, on Thursday (4/27) the Lady Polar Bears roared back from a 9-1 deficit at the hands of Camp Hill to make off with a 19-11 win. What make this win so satisfying was (1) It was against Camp Hill, (2) It stopped a three game losing streak, and (3) It was a hard earned come-from-behind victory.

Camp Hill began to make life miserable for our Lady Bears by scoring one run in their first at bat. But it was in the third inning that Northern became unglued. Committing three costly errors in the inning, the Polar Bears saw the Lady Lions parade twelve batters as they piled up eight runs on five hits. Now trailing by eight runs, Northern began a scoring binge of its own. The Lady Bears tallied five runs in the third, three in the fourth, four in the fifth, and six in the sixth to finish off the Lions. Leading the way for Northern, was its "middle three" Trapp, Prough and Klaus. These three young ladies collectively gathered nine of the teams eighteen hits and scored ten of the nineteen runs.

On Friday (4/28), the Lady Bears hosted the Blue Raiders of Middletown High. This game was a 19-4 laughter for Northern. While collecting only six hits in this five inning contest, the Lady Bears scored a whopping nineteen runs, mostly due to the generosity of the Middletown pitchers. So erratic were the Blue Raider pitchers, that Northern received eighteen bases on balls. That statistic alone gives you some idea of the kind of day it was for Northern. The Lady Bears certainly took advantage of Middletown's problem to pull off the rout.

While six different players got base hits for Northern, it was really the sterling effort of pitcher Tammy Dove that made the difference. Pitching her second complete game in a row, Tammy struggled at different times in the game, but still did a great job for the Bears.

This week will find Northern on the road for its next two games. Tuesday the Lady Bears travel to Shippensburg, and on Thursday to Boiling Springs.

WTF Viewing

George Washington: The Forging of A Nation, a four-hour dramatization of America's first presidency, will air in two separate two-hour episodes on Monday, May 8 and Tuesday, May 9 at 7:00 p.m. at WITF-TV33.

The program, which is based on James Thomas Flexner's Pulitzer Prize-winning biography of Washington, traces the events of Washington's two terms as President, from 1789 to 1797. Washington faced a number of crises during his presidency including the controversy over America's role in the French Revolution, the plague of Yellow Fever that nearly wiped out the city of Philadelphia in 1793, and the Whiskey Rebellion in western Pennsylvania, which threatened to end the new government.

Ray Charles, singer, pianist, and songwriter, is featured in "Ray Charles in Concert" presented on Live From Lincoln Center on Friday, May 12 at 9 p.m.

The evening will feature the ballet, A Fool for You, choreographed by Peter Martins. Charles, who will be at the piano, will be joined by the Original Ray Charles Orchestra and the Raeletts. Robert Irving will conduct the New York City Ballet Orchestra.

The U.S. and the Philippines: In Our Image, a timely new series unveiling the turbulent history of the Philippines in the 20th century and its long complex relationship with the United States begins Monday, May 8 at 8 p.m.

In Our Image features exclusive interviews with Philippine President Corazone Aquino, before and after she took office, and with former President Ferdinand Marcos and his wife, Imelda. Veteran journalist and author Stanley Karnow is chief correspondent and narrator for the series.

Northern Track

by Amanda Rhone

Northern performed exceptionally well at the Shippensburg track meet on April 25, 1989. The warm day provided ideal conditions for outstanding achievements. The score was Girls, Northern (73) Shippensburg (68); Boys Northern (97) Shippensburg (53). Chad Bowser, a junior, competed in the 3200 M relay and the 300 M intermediate hurdles. Chad won second place in the hurdles and was a critical part of the relay team which won first place.

The Girls team continued their record breaking trend with the relay team of Nancy Jacoby, Amy Minnich, Becky Minnich and Michelle Mayhew running a time of 4:06.4 which was six seconds off the previous record. In addition, Nancy Jacoby ran a record breaking time of 12.7 in the 100M dash and 25.7 in the 200M dash.
